

Impact

Section 1: Study

| Current regulations (have applied to you in level 4 and 5) | | New regulations (will apply to you in level 6) | |
|--|---|--|---|
| 10 | 15, 30, 45 and 60 credit modules may be used | 1.3 | For those students returning to a new block delivery curriculum: Predominantly 30 credit modules used; two 15 credit modules may be used at each level of study |
| N/A | No regulation applies but modules normally delivered over the academic year or over one semester/term | 1.16/ 1.25 | For those students returning to a new block delivery curriculum: Modules delivered sequentially over 4 x 7-week blocks (some exceptions may apply). For part-time students, modules delivered in alternate blocks, eg 1 and 3 in first year; 2 and 4 in second year, or consecutive blocks, eg 1 and 2 in first year; 3 and 4 in second year. |

Section 2: Assessment

Current regulations (have applied to you in level 4 and 5)

23 Compensation in non-honours degree:
45 credits across levels 5 and 6, with no more than 25 per cent at level 6

New regulations (will apply to you in level 6)

2.11 Compensation in non-honours degree:
30 credits at either level 5 or level 6 constituting notonTj0.0025.3 (u)12 (in)1

Current regulations (have applied to you in level 4 and 5)New regulations (will apply to you in level 6)

failed modules in which they must be reassessed. However assessment boards may decide to exceptionally allow students to progress if they have achieved at least 75 credits with the remaining credits in the 30-39 per cent range. Each decision will be at the discretion of the relevant assessment board and will be based on the board's confidence in the individual student's competence to progress.

Section 4: Awards

No applicable changes except those to non-

Current regulations (have applied to you in level 4 and 5)

leader, who will seek the approv

New regulations (will apply to you in level 6)

